AFFIDAVIT OF MEHUL SHAH

NOW COMES the affiant, MEHUL SHAH, and after being duly sworn on oath states as follows in support of Defendants' Response to Plaintiff's Motion for Discovery Sanctions:

1. The information contained in this affidavit is based on my personal knowledge and belief and if called to testify I am competent to testify thereto.
2. I was first made aware of the need to access the server from the CW warehouse on or about April 26, 2010.
3. In response, I called First Midwest Bank representative Dave Clark and told him they needed to get access to the server. Paresh Joshi joined this call. In that phone call, First Midwest Bank representative Dave Clark told us that the sever belonged to Associated Bank. Mr. Clark further told us that he would need a court order or subpoena to allow them access to the server in the CW Warehouse. Mr. Clark then told us that he had also informed Plaintiff of the same procedure to have access to the server.

4. I immediately third-party conference called our former counsel so that they could hear what the bank had told them regarding the server and act accordingly. Paresh Joshi also joined this call.
5. I believed that either Respondents or Plaintiff would present Associated Bank or First Midwest Bank with a subpoena for the server.
6. I entered into negotiations with First Midwest Bank representative Dave Clark to attempt to re-lease the server contract so that I could have possession of the server. It appeared that a deal was coming close to fruition at the end of June 2010. I began to seek the funds to close the deal.
7. Before I could obtain the proper financing, on August 30, 2010 I was told by Mr. Clark of First Midwest Bank that the server had been sold to a buyer in Dubai.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOUGHT.
